

REPUBLICANS CHECK VOTERS

Are Making Investigation Into the Charges of Illegal Registration.

DIFFERENT STORY LAST YEAR

Then All in the Lower Wards Were Expected to Vote for Hitchcock and Dahman and All Was Declared Legal.

Republicans as well as democrats have taken notice of the charges made by the World-Herald that on September 3 last numerous persons registered illegally in the Third ward, and an investigation is being carried on to get at the facts, so that if the charges are found to be true, prosecutions may be instituted.

In making the investigation it has become necessary to go into the registration of one year ago that names may be checked and computations made. While this has not been completed, it has gone far enough to develop the fact that in the same locations where the World-Herald charges fraud this year the same situation prevailed a year ago without causing the democrats uneasiness.

One year ago when G. M. Hitchcock was a democratic candidate for the United States senate and James C. Dahman a democratic candidate for governor the World-Herald was bending all its energies to boost the registration, little caring whence the parties came and whether they registered as republicans or democrats, just so that they registered. The idea was at the time if parties registered as republicans they could be worked to vote for Hitchcock and Dahman and if they registered as democrats, if they were opposed to these candidates they could be whipped into line until election day.

Glorious Fraud Last Year.

One of the most glorious registration frauds of 1910 was perpetrated in connection with the Salvation Army Working men's home, 415 South Thirteenth street, although the management knew nothing about it at the time and insist they had nothing to do with securing the men or furnishing their names.

The Salvation Army Working Men's home is a little two-story building at 415 South Thirteenth street. The lower story is used for an office, dining room and kitchen. The second floor is used for lodging house purposes, containing a dozen beds and cots. From this one place last fall thirty-nine persons, seventeen republicans and twenty-two democrats, registered. At no time in its history has the Salvation Army Working Men's home had accommodations for more than half of this number. And the great majority of the people who patronized the home are transients. They seldom remain in the city more than a few days at a time.

From this place last fall, it is apparent that every man who was there at the time was taken to the booth and registered, regardless whether a resident of Omaha or Kalamazoo.

One year ago when the democrats were turning heaven and earth to roll up a big majority in Omaha, the World-Herald and Dahman it evidently didn't make much difference to them how they got the votes.

This is clearly shown by the registration from the three little rooms over Sager's saloon at the corner of Thirteenth and Harney streets. For years this place has been used for lodgings, the people operating the same keeping two rooms for themselves and renting out three. The three rooms are each large enough for only one bed, yet notwithstanding this last year from this particular locality eighteen persons were registered, but no protest came from the World-Herald or any democrat. Of the men who registered fourteen designated themselves as republicans and four as democrats.

Registration figures for 1910 show that from 1419 Dodge street thirty-one persons registered, twenty-three republicans and seven democrats, with one without a political preference.

At the Dodge street place a saloon is and was in operation on the first floor, with offices and lodging rooms on the two floors above. The upper floors have been used as a lodging house for some years, but at no time has there been the necessary room for the accommodation of more than half the number of persons who registered from there last year.

But as they were all expected to vote for Hitchcock and Dahman the World-Herald insisted and persisted that the election was fair and on the square.

Plans Being Made for Mormon Choir

George E. Carpenter, in advance of the Mormon Tabernacle choir, which comes to the auditorium on October 25, was in Omaha Wednesday to confer with Manager J. M. Gillan, manager of the auditorium.

The choir consists of 200 men, and in addition they will be accompanied by about 100 friends. Two special trains will be required to transport the Mormons, and they expect to arrive in Omaha at 4 o'clock in the afternoon of October 25. From the train they will go immediately to Florence to visit the historic "outfitting" place of the Mormons when they pressed into the then unknown west.

The problem of handling the big choir is a mammoth one. Before they start this organization will have $60,000 deposited in a Salt Lake bank to be used in case of emergency. To care for them on their tour is a matter of detail that requires much attention. The Rome hotel will probably be selected as headquarters for them during their short stay here.

Rejected Suitor Uses Brickbats

Because the girl he loved turned him down and married another man W. H. Meyers went to the Union depot Tuesday night and attempted to break his vengeance on the party by breaking up the honeymoon. The result was that Meyers was lodged behind bars at the city bastille charged with disorderly conduct. He was later released on $5 bonds and forfeited the same by not answering to his name in police court Wednesday morning.

Meyers was arrested by Officer McDougall, who said the disturber came into the station and on spying the newlyweds made life miserable for them by throwing, not rice, but brickbats at the groom. The reception was more than the groom wanted and he called for an officer.

Superior Rug Bargains for Ak-Sar-Ben

THIS store has made it possible for Omaha people to buy with confidence—confidence in goods secured here. We bind ourselves to the fullest protection of our customers, so when we now announce that we have made unprecedented cuts in rugs for Ak-Sar-Ben week, visitors and Omaha people alike may know that we are making a statement with every word the word of truth. These you can depend upon to wear like much higher priced rugs day after day as you walk over them. They are rugs of quality that have brought very much higher prices, and the sacrifice is made because we want Ak-Sar-Ben visitors to become acquainted with this store. You'll find no such bargain in the city—no rugs that you can depend upon at these ridiculous prices.

This sale includes Wilton Velvet, Axminster, Royal Wilton, Brussels, Fibre, Kashmir, Lanark, Karabagh Mission and Scotch weaves. They are a most strikingly beautiful lot, with unique designs. In some instances they cannot be duplicated in Omaha. There are so many colors, sizes and designs that every seeker of a distinctive high quality floor covering is certain to find here rugs that will highly please. The Scotch weaves are suitable for any room and will harmonize with any color scheme in decorations.

There's a genuineness in quality of these rugs that will startle the prospective buyer into an expression of surprise over the low level of the prices. Remember, these are superior rugs at descension prices—and they hold good for this week only.

Pickpockets Work Among Spectators

During the manufacturers' parade yesterday pickpockets worked among the crowds in the downtown district, and the result was a flood of complaints to the police. During the afternoon nine persons reported that their pockets had been picked or that they had been robbed in some manner. Among the victims are the following:

W. W. Moore, 548 South Twenty-third, $2.
J. C. Gamble, 310 South Thirty-fifth, $1.50.
Marvin Armour, Homer, Neb., $5.
Mrs. P. W. Perry, $1.50.
Agnes Gomerhesky, 2113 California, $3.90.
H. A. Jones, Tecumseh, $12.40.
J. H. Kirk, 418 South Twenty-first, $20.
Myrtle Foley, 2220 Lake, watch.
J. H. McKnight, Merriam, Ia., railroad pass.

HIGH SCHOOL CADETS READY FOR THE PARADE

High school cadet regiment held its final drill Wednesday noon for the Ak-Sar-Ben military parade Thursday, and the cadets will be in shape to make a good showing against the older soldier boys who will march. Guns were issued to the nine cadet companies and the musical instruments to the cadet band on Wednesday. Swords were issued to the commissioned officers last week.

After the parade the cadets will attend the carnival in a body and "rush" the various attractions there, as has been the custom in former years.

KNOX PURE PLAIN SPARKLING GELATINE

The Outside Looks Like This

The Knox Gelatine package is easy to identify and merits your selection. It contains the purest and best Gelatine in the world—and plenty of it, enough for two full quarts.

The Inside Looks Like This

When made into a delicious dessert, like the following:
JELLIED APPLE
With Lemon Jelly and Cream
1/2 cup Knox Gelatine.
6 or 7 tart apples.
1/4 cup cold water.

Soak gelatine in cold water 5 minutes; dissolve in 1/2 cup boiling water. Boil, quarter, core apples, cut quarters in slices; put layer of slices in bottom dish with light covering; sprinkle with sugar; continue layers till all apples and sugar are used; add 1/2 cup boiling water, cover and cook very slowly 1 1/2 hours. All spices, gelatin and fruit jelly this recipe and very tart border mould. When cold turn from mould, garnish with triangles of lemon or jelly. All spices cover with whipped cream.

BODY OF GUSTAVE ANDERSON ARRIVES FROM THE EAST

The body of United States Commissioner Gustave A. Anderson, who dropped dead Monday in Chicago, arrived in Omaha Wednesday and was met at the Union station by a large delegation of the members of the Scottish Rite and the Knights Templars. Because the fair is being held so near the family residence in the 1900 block, Douglas street, the body was taken to the Masonic hall, where it will remain until funeral arrangements are made. Wilhelm Anderson, son of the deceased, is en route from San Francisco and arrangements are being held up pending his arrival. The funeral probably will be held Friday afternoon.

NORTHWESTERN OFFICIALS CALL ON BUSINESS MEN

M. Hughitt, Jr., freight traffic manager, and A. C. Johnson, passenger traffic manager, of the Northwestern lines, were in Omaha yesterday, calling at the local offices and visiting a few prominent business men. No special significance attaches to their visit. They arrived Wednesday morning in a private car.

Kranich & Bach PIANOS

Highest Ideals of Piano Tone and Piano Quality.

There is no use in making a long story in telling of Kranich & Bach pianos. They represent the highest ideals in tone quality, tone character and tone nature. They are the same—the last word—in piano making. They are the kind that goes into the best homes, gives the greatest service and answers the most exacting demands. In short, a Kranich & Bach is the piano that should be inspected by you before you make a purchase. Investigate its qualities, and when you buy you will buy a Kranich & Bach. The terms of payment will be any that you name, within reason.
